

MEDIA RELEASE

NATIONAL ENGINEERING MONTH BEGINS MARCH 1ST

Canada's biggest celebration of engineering and engineering technology

Toronto, February 15, 2017 -- Professional Engineers Ontario (PEO), the Ontario Association of Certified Engineering Technicians and Technologists (OACETT) the Ontario Society of Professional Engineers (OSPE), and Engineers Without Borders Canada (EWB) invite you to help celebrate National Engineering Month (NEM)—a month-long celebration beginning March 1, 2017.

Themed THERE IS A PLACE FOR YOU, NEM 2017 will showcase 300-plus engineering and engineering technology events across Ontario, with some of the most dynamic, innovative engineering and engineering technology forums and activities to date. National Engineering Month events in Ontario coincide with events happening across the country.

THERE IS A PLACE FOR YOU* in engineering and engineering technology! Explore, discover and appreciate how engineering, science and technology improves lives—locally and worldwide. Now in its 26th year, National Engineering Month offers everything from lighting the CN Tower purple, to design challenges, to meeting “Super Engineers”, to engineering technology storytelling, to name a few events.

Engineering and engineering technology is for people of all ages and backgrounds—everyone is welcome and THERE IS A PLACE FOR YOU!
